V -ALL DARKNESS NOW light,
All sorrow where but joy should be;
No pleasure more can give delight
Since thou art gone away from me.
No smile can cheer my drooping heart,
No hand can smooth my ruffled brow;
I feel alone the one great smart—
That llope is dead within me now.
Will you give me back my sacred promises? You have not kept yours. Why should I mine? You have been and are deceived. I wish I could see you once before I leave, which will be next week, without fail. I forgive. May you be happy is the wish of your crucified, secrified and unhappy w.
